Who we are

Founded in 1925, the Legion is Canada's largest Veteran support and community service organization. We are a democratic, non-profit organization with a national reach across Canada, and branches in the U.S., Europe and Mexico. And with nearly 300,000 members of the Legion, our strength is in our numbers.

What we do

Founded by Veterans, for Veterans

We advocate for all who served Canada, regardless of when or where they served. The Legion also provides representation and assistance to serving and retired Veterans and their families — whether they are Legion members or not.

We exist so Canada never forgets

The Legion understands the importance of acknowledging the courage of those who served and still serve today. Through Remembrance initiatives, we help Canadians honour those who have made the ultimate sacrifice for our country.

Serving our communities and country

With over 1,400 locations from coast to coast to coast and abroad, Legion Branches are the cornerstone of communities across Canada, and provide one of the largest volunteer bases in the country.

Remembrance

It's our duty to honour all who have served and sacrificed for our country. We ensure this tradition continues through programs and activities, such as:

- The annual Poppy campaign
- The National Remembrance Day service
- Community Remembrance services and commemoration events
- The maintenance of local cenotaphs and memorials to honour the fallen
- Youth education programs
- Museums and displays to express local pride

Serving those who served

The Legion Service Bureau Network serves all Veterans, members of the Canadian Armed Forces, RCMP, and their families — providing support free of charge. This includes a wide range of initiatives, including:

- Assistance and representation with Veterans Affairs Canada and the Veterans Review and Appeal Board
- Emergency financial assistance
- Access to mental health support
- Housing and care programs
- And more...

Advocating for Veterans

Speaking as a strong unified voice

The Legion advocates for Veterans' benefits and for the well-being of Veterans and their families. With a membership 300,000 strong, we advocate through a number of key activities and processes, such as:

- Meetings with senior elected bureaucrats and senior military officials
- Working alongside other Veterans' organizations
- Building relationships with the CAF and RCMP
- Supporting research to further our understanding of the issues facing Veterans

Creating positive change at any level

Legion members can take an active role in adding their voice to the Legion's advocacy efforts. By getting involved in the Branch, supporting Veterans in your community, and proposing and voting on recommendations and resolutions to improve Veterans' care, you can make positive change.

Communities and youth

The cornerstone of communities

As a member, there are many ways to get involved and have a direct impact on your community. Our work at the community level includes charitable activities, outreach and assistance programs, health and wellness clinics for seniors, Meals on Wheels programs, Christmas hamper programs, and more.

Helping Canada's next generation grow

At the Legion, we acknowledge the importance of supporting Canadian youth. From promoting Remembrance, supporting Cadets, Scouts and Guides, to our involvement with youth sports, we are helping the next generation of leaders.
